Internet Reviews

"Performance should never be the sole metric to base a radiator choice on. In fact, never buy a radiator separately- get the radiator and appropriately chosen fans in terms of airflow, static pressure and noise levels you are comfortable with. "The HWL (Black Ice NEMESIS) rads scale great with airflow while the XSPC RX V3 does not- goes to show that liquid and air flow restrictions don't tell everything and the entire package can affect things. The Nemesis series was optimized for scaling and it has showed to be the case in here." -Varun S. Gangoli. Read the whole review HERE.
