Description

Trying to set your Rig apart from all the rest? Then pick up some of these RGB Switches they will add that extra little sparkle to your Rig!

We carry them both as momentary and latching switches and they come in both black and silver. When turned on, the ring around the push button illuminates and blends through vivid Red's Green's and Blue's.

Manufactured from Aluminum and then anodized, this extensive range of vandal resistant security switches are designed for use in potentially hostile environments, such as access control applications or, in the case of pc modders, powering up your case to "on" or for use as a reset button.

*Please Note: This RGB Switches work best with RGB Controllers to help switch between colors and functions. Listed below are the controllers that have been tested and confirmed compatible.
