Description

The Alphacool Helix Eisbecher captivates with its unique Helix Optic, including elegant aluminium caps for its upper and bottom sides. The 60mm diameter version also offers a UV cathode tube to illuminate UV-reactive water from within.

The Alphacool Eisbecher Helix Light is the optical highlight of the Eisbecher family. The helix inside the reservoir gives off a unique effect reminiscent of a strand of DNA, making it a real eye-catcher. The base and top are made entirely of acetal, but are covered with aluminium caps for an elegant look. The aluminium caps do not come in contact with the water, of course.

The installation options are considerable, with two G1/4 threads in both the bottom and top. This gives you lots of options for positioning your reservoir. The installation set is a clip bracket, made up of two clips which are fastened to the case with one screw each. The Eisbecher Helix Light just needs to be clipped on, giving you lots of flexibility in how you mount it.

The Eisbecher Helix is available in multiple colour combinations. The cap, bottom, and the helix itself can all be different colours.
