Short Description

With the XPX Eisblock Modding Kit, you have the opportunity to customize your XPX Eisblock water block.

Description

With the XPX Eisblock Modding Kit, you have the opportunity to customize your XPX Eisblock water block.

Along with the colourful aluminium cap, the kit also includes the corresponding Intel and AMD brackets as well as screw caps - all in the same colour as the cap, of course. You also receive the logo in four more colours: red, blue, green, and white. Additionally, the kit includes a tool for removing the block's cap without scratching it.
