Product Details:

With its foldable design the SteelSeries 3H is easy to transport and the small size also means that the headset is very light weight - the headset is hardly noticeable when the sound starts playing. A strong bass and crystal clear sound will help you determine where you can expect the next encounter with your enemy.

All headsets from SteelSeries are optimized for specific sounds found in gaming, like the sound of gunfire, weapon reloads, footsteps and other crucial in-game sounds. That's why professional gamers all over the world use it. We're sure you will enjoy it too, whether you're an aspiring competitive gamer or just want to fully immerse yourself in your gaming experience.

We recommend SteelSeries 3H for RTS and MMO-gamers.
