Short Description

Product Details:

Created as a simplified version of the SteelSound 5H v2, SteelSound 4H features many of the same features such as XL-sized ear cushions, a retractable microphone, volume control, and sound specifically geared towards enhancing in-game performance. However, unlike the SteelSeries 5H v2, this headset can not be dismantled into separate pieces.

All headsets from SteelSeries are optimized for specific sounds found in gaming, like the sound of gunfire, weapon reloads, footsteps and other crucial in-game sounds. That's why professional gamers all over the world use them. We're sure you will enjoy it too, whether you're an aspiring competitive gamer or just want to fully immerse yourself in your gaming experience.

We recommend SteelSeries 4H for both FPS and RTS-gamers.

Features:

- Lightweight gaming headset with XL-sized earcushions
- Developed in cooperation with professional gamers
- Retractable uni-directional microphone system
- Volume control, featuring 3 microphone settings
- Full-size earcups for maximum individual comfort
- Strong and deep resonating in-game sound projection
- 40mm SteelSound SunDancer(Sd) Units
