Internet Reviews	They have a solid design, bright lights, and great functionality. Unless you absolutely abhor molex connectors or need dimmer lights, this should be your lighting product. Even if you are interested in motherboard controlled RGB lighting, Lamptron has the ability to support that as well. While one of the Programmable remotes wasn't working properly and the magnets on the Simple kept falling off when removing them, the price to LED ratio is fantastic and well worth the minor troubles. For outstanding design and affordability, I bestow the PureOverclock Editor's Choice Award.  Click HERE to read more
