Description

 New lower price for short time only! ORDER SOON WHILE STOCK LASTS! ***

We have hundreds of scrap pieces of aluminum from Lian Li and Cooler Master cases. These are 12" X 12" or greater pieces aluminum for those of you 1337 modders that need need some raw materials for DIY. Although some of these might be in near perfect finish condition do not buy expecting this nor should you request this. These pieces are mainly meant for sale for those wanting to build or remodel a case. Most pieces in stock are from the Lian Li V Series so are the thicker (close to 1/8") pieces of aluminum. If you want the thinner, classic Lian Li or Cooler Master Material you can request in the comments of the order and we will try and accommodate you.

 Please note these are not returnable and for the price do not expect perfect pieces of aluminum!
