Description

Bitspower CPU Block Summit ELX for AMD TRX40 Platform (POM)

With high processing power comes the need for heat management. In order to keep your AMD 3rd Gen Ryzen Threadripper processor under optimum working conditions, Bitspower has developed a new water block for the socket sTRX4 with its Bitspower CPU Block Summit ELX for AMD TRX40 Platform (POM). Additionally, it's also compatible with previous Ryzen Threadripper series.

With its clean look and high-density heat sink fin design, this water block promises stunning visuals, as well as superior performance. The two-way tunnel design alleviates the difficulties in routing waterways, allowing for an easy and streamlined water cooling system.

Fashioned with a POM top layer and a copper base plate, the Bitspower CPU Block Summit ELX for AMD TRX40 Platform (POM) features a narrow footprint to ensure it doesn't interfere with the RAM slots.
