Short Description

Did you get that sweet new Lian Li PC-011 Dynamic rig built? Yeah? All the air chased out of the loop so it's whisper-quiet? Started playing your game at 4K res only to realize the system's now overheating because that 011 Dynamic has a sold glass front? Man, that sucks! If only you had more airflow in that area, right? --Well, worry no more! PPCS comes to the rescue again. Time to customize that case and give it some additional airflow where you need it (or want it). Glass is nice, but sometimes it's nice to have some airflow too, right?

*Please Note: These are made out of cast acrylic. They do not have internal filtration. Due to made-to-order production, they are not available for instant shipping and the Rush Fee does not apply to these.
