Description

This is the male half of the two plastic clips needed to keep the front face plate on most of your Lian Li Aluminum Cases. The complete set can be found here, and the female half can be found here. If you have a newer style case such as a PC-7010, etc. they will take a different male clip that has a tab found here. For those the complete set can be found here, and the male half can be found here.
