Short Description

Product Details:

The Cooler Master HS-M Weapon Of Choice M4 is hybrid gaming surface particularly suited for bumpy or uneven tables and desktops. The hard upper surface layer is optimized to perform 40% better with laser sensors and offers improved glide for absolute speed and precision tracking. The HS-M Battle Pad is layered with polypropylene and a special alloy coating finish, while the aggressive non-slip 100% natural rubber base makes thorough contact with most desktop materials, ensuring that your gaming surface stays firmly in place during intense battles. To top things off, the iconic graphics send a decisive message to your fellow gamers that you mean business and won't give up in difficult situations.

Features:

- Large iconic graphic to let your enemies know you mean business!
- Made of a special responsive PP/alloy-layered compound, uniquely textured to offer maximum tracking and speedy glide
- Better optimized tracking for all laser sensors
- Great for high sensitivity gamers
- Easy to clean
