Short Description

These are Genuine Lian Li Replacement Bay Covers. These spare 5.25 bay covers will fit any of the Lian-Li cases. These can be bought to replace a messed up covers or they can be bought with switch holes pre-drilled, and, even with switches already mounted. This can save you time and help avoid destroying a cover which is quite easy to do when cutting large switch holes. If you need a hole pattern that is different than what we offer here, please feel free to email us.
