-  Dual Mode - Analog or USB, your choice!
Connect the headset via 3.5mm minijacks to your Sound Blaster sound system, onboard audio or MP3 player. Alternatively, use the THX TruStudio Pro Dual Mode USB Adapter to connect to your PC or Mac via USB.
-  THX TruStudio Pro technology
THX TruStudio Pro Surround[™] audio immerses you in the game so you hear sounds clearly from the front, back, around, above and below. Only THX TruStudio Pro Surround delivers truly 3D audio surround effects to give you the gaming advantage you need.
-  Tailor your sound with touch screen controls
Customizable TacticControl[™] driver interface optimized with Live!Touch[™] for touchscreen controls under Windows 7 operating system gives you full control over every nuance of the THX TruStudio Pro audio suite as well as custom graphic equalizer and VoiceFX controls.
-  Customise and share optimized audio settings
Customize your own TacticProfile[™] EQ and audio profiles, and then export and share them with other gamers. You can also use pre-configured audio settings from world-renowned gamers such as Fatal1ty, compLexity and Team Dignitas.
-  Have fun with your gaming voice
Morph your voice into different in-game characters with VoiceFX technology and restore surround audio to your Windows XP games in Windows 7 with Creative ALchemy.
-  Effortless communication with your team-mates
Use the Sound Blaster Tactic^{3D} Alpha headset with your favorite gaming communications software such as Ventrilo or TeamSpeak.
