Description

The SC made of steel radiator grills are the perfect cover for each radiator with mounting possibility of 180mm and 200mm fans. They also offer if fans are mounted to protect against the fast-rotating rotors. If the radiator is recessed into the housing Makes this perfectly shaped hood the perfect end to the housing cover. For this, an outer edge extra added, in which holes are present to ensure an independent assembly of the diaphragm on the lid and the radiator fan or radiator. This panel is designed for 180mm or 200mm radiator with a fan size. This is not an inferior standard Markzware but the very best product for their project.
